A Message From Santa

HO HO HO from the North Pole!

The elves are busy making sure all the presents are ready for Santa's trip to Shildon.

Mrs Clause has been busy baking Christmas cookies and keeping everybody organised; the Elves, Reindeer and me!

The sleigh has been washed and polished so that everything is ready for our special trip on Christmas Eve from 4.30pm.

Be good everybody!

Love and sleigh bells,
Santa xxxxxxx

Christmas Celebrations in Shildon

Friday 4th December, 2015

Shildon Christmas Market

Market opening times will be from 10.00am until 5.00pm along Church Street, Shildon.

Get your Christmas spirit flowing by visiting the second Chamber of Trade's Christmas Market, which will see the celebration of the first full year for the Shildon Loyalty Card scheme.

Browse the many stalls for the ideal Christmas gift, featuring Christmas wreaths, hand made gifts, jewellery and much, much more.

There will be entertainment with a piper, Sunnysdale Campus School Choir performing traditional Christmas favourites, along with street entertainment, a stilt walker and specialist food purveyors.

So come and get your fill of Christmas cheer.

Christmas Procession

Friday 4th December

from 4.15pm

Come along to the Christmas Procession on Friday 4th December and join in the festive family fun. Meet at the Bus Station at the end of Church Street at 4.15pm ready for 4.30pm. Meet Santa and his guests to lead the procession along Church Street to the Town Square for the official 'Turn On' of the Christmas Tree Lights. There will be Carols performed by Timothy Hackworth School Choir.

From 5pm at the Shildon Civic Hall there will be free family entertainment featuring Mr Twister, Children's Disco, Face Painting, Nail Art, and Roundabout and of course Santa will be in his grotto to meet the children.

Table top sales will also be held in the Civic Hall from 5pm – 7pm supporting local organisations.

So come along and celebrate this wonderful time of year.

Christmas Market details from Chris Bowman on 01388 776699.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S AWARDS 2015

On Wednesday 25th November this year SCYPAN (Shildon Children and Young People's Action Network) Young People's Awards will take place at Shildon Civic Hall and is expected to be another wonderful success.

Local young people will be celebrated for their contribution to their schools; local groups and impact on their local community.

Young people have been nominated from across Shildon for their contribution to the creative and performing arts; along with sport, community champion, schools and the Chloe Clark Special Award.

The awards night showcases the valuable contribution children and young people make within their own community and celebrates their achievements.

We should all be proud of what our local young people achieve and contribute to Shildon, helping to shape Shildon's future and ensuring it is brighter for everyone.

HACKWORTH PARKRUN

parkrun came to Shildon in 2013 and is held at Hackworth Park on a Saturday morning, starting at 9am sharp. Runners meet at 8.30am at the bottom of the Surtees Rail Trail (the Black Path) next to the Masonic Hall.

To join, visit parkrun.org.uk and register. Print out your barcode and bring it with you every week in order to get your time and position.

"parkrun is open to everyone of all abilities and all ages so for a fun, family friendly run, come and join us each week at Hackworth Park. After the run we go for a cuppa in the Resthouse which is situated in the park itself."

You can find out more about Hackworth parkrun by visiting the website at parkrun.org.uk/hackworth and the Facebook page at facebook.com/Hackworthparkrun.

GROUPS HAVE DISNEY SPELLS

This year's pantomime at the Civic Hall, is rather different from normal, for The Tearaways Youth Theatre Group are performing the Disney Cinderella Pantomime, but have the Tykes Youth Group and the Spectrum Roller Skating Group all performing with them in the production too.

A young spokesperson for the Tearaways said: "This year's panto Cinderella is part of the Disney animated film and part of the recent Cinderella Disney film put together in one two-hour show.

"We would like to thank everyone who has supported our productions this year and would like to wish everyone a Happy Christmas and a good New Year."

Disney Cinderella Pantomime is on Thursday 21st, Friday 22nd and Saturday 23rd January 2016 at 7-30pm and on Sunday 24th January 2016 at 2pm.

Tickets: Adults £5, Children £3
